

Thematic Dialogue on Access to Remedies and Launch of the Regional Support Office of the Bali Process Guides for Victim Protection and Assistance

Skyview Hotel, Bangkok, Thailand / Hybrid

8 August 2023
Time	Agenda Item	Notes
9:00-9:30	Registration	RSO Staff
9:30 -9:45	Welcome Remarks	Mr. David Scott, Co-Manager, RSO to the Bali Process
9:45-10:00	Introduction of Participants	Moderator
10:00-10:15	Opening Remarks	Ms. Mary Balzary, First Assistant Secretary, Department of Home Affairs, Australia
10:15-10:35	Messages	Dr. Ratchada Jayagupta, Representative of Thailand to the ASEAN Commission on the Promotion and Protection of Rights on Women and Children Mr. Anukul Paedkaew, Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Social Development and Human Security
10:35-10:45	Coffee Break
Part I: Thematic Dialogue
10: 45-11:05	Challenges for Survivors on Accessing Remedies and How to Overcome it	Ms. Mallikka Karunan, Survivor Advocate, Art. 21 Foundation
11:05-11:20	Accessing Remedies, what is it like for Child Victims of Sexual Exploitation	Ms. Kohnwilai Teppunkoonngam, Regional Coordinator for East and Southeast Asia, ECPAT International
11:20-11:35	Supporting Victims to Access Remedies: The Consular Experience	Mr. Judha Nugraha, Director for Protection of Indonesian Citizens, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Republic of Indonesia
11: 35-11:50	Accessing Remedies for” Invisible Survivors”	Mr. Sompong Srakaew, Labor Protection Network
11:50-12:10	Open Forum	All participants
12:10-13:15	LUNCH
Part II: Launch of Bali Process Best Practice Guide for Victim Protection and Assistance
13:15-13: 30	Introduction of the Practitioners’ Guides Series	Ms. Laura Johnson, Author, NEXUS Institute
13:30- 13:50	My Experience in Using the Practitioners’ Guide	Mr. Peesrasin Chatchawarat, After Care Manager A21 Representative from Thailand Ministry of Social Development and Human Security
13:50-14:30	Small Group Discussion on Ways Forward and Collaboration
14:30- 15:00	Coffee Break and Networking	